Grant Writing for Non-Profits

This three-hour seminar is tailored to help non-profit organizations become effective grant seekers and build confidence in writing a winning proposal. Participants will review the stages involved in grant writing: preparation, grant research and identification, grant application/proposal writing, and management.

Rebekah L. Ricardo is the Grants Analyst for the Winston-Salem Police Department where, since 2008, she has secured and managed over $10 million in federal, state, and private grant funding. She is an alumna of High Point University, where she earned a B.A in French. She has presented workshops on grantsmanship at the Annual Conference for the Grant Professionals Association, the North Carolina Philanthropy Conference, and the North Carolina Association for Property and Evidence. She is a member of Grant Professionals Association (GPA), a national organization for grant professionals.
